Mrs. R. P. Jackson left Wednesday for Omaha, Neb., to give her daughter, Miss Irene Cowden, in marriage to Mr. Fred McDaniels, also Mrs. Marie Watson and little daughter, Cleola, the latter will act as flower girl. Miss Rowena Cowden will be bridesmaids and little Miss Katherine will play the wedding march.

It is to our as well as Mr. McCrory's Credit that he defeated Kansas City's great white bowler, Mr. A. W. Anderson in two straight. McCrory won the first 101 to 88 and also the second 76 to 73. Mr. Anderson played Miss Kelly giving 20 points and was defeated by her 95 to 93. As this is the third time McCrory and Anderson have played you will enjoy seeing a good game Monday evening. We believe that McCrory, who has been defeated in a contest only by Anderson, will be the victor.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving remembrance of Mrs. Laura Tolson who died May 29, 1916. You are gone, but not forgotten dear Mother

Nor shall you ever be,
As long as life and memory last
I shall remember thee.
If I had seen you at the last
And held your dying hand
And heard the last sigh from your heart
I would not feel so bad,
I did not know the pain you had,
I did not see you die.
I only knew you went away,
And never said goodbye.
Sadly missed by,
Your loving daughter and grandson,
Mrs. Charles Ridley, Duluth, Minn.
Master Charles Adkins.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of our dear mother and son Richard Dewey Rathner who passed away one year ago last Sunday June 15, 1918.
Softly the stars are gleaming upon a quiet grave,
There sleepeth without dreaming one we loved but could not save;
Through all his pain at times he smiled,
A smile of heavenly birth,
And when the angels called him home, he smiled farewell to earth.

Heaven retains our treasure,
Earth the lovely casket keeps;
And the sunbeams love to linger
Where our dear one sleeps.
Sadly missed by mother, father, sisters and brother.

IN MEMORIAM.

Yes on that bright and beautiful day, two years ago this 19th day of June, when that great Deat Angel entered my home and summoned my husband away, to a brighter and better home to live with loved ones that have gone before. We laid your body in yonder's grave. There to rest until that great Judgment day. We decorate your grave with the flowers in May, although they wither and die away. But in my heart there's a tender place that seems will never cease to flow. It's only God that knows and sees the heart. The sting I've felt since we are apart.
Sadly missed by,
Mrs. L. E. Nickens, Wife,
Mrs. H. A. Johnson, Sister,
L. M. Nickens,
W. H. Nickens,
J. E. Nickens, Brothers.

BLUE VALLEY BAPTIST CHURCH.
At 1 o'clock Sunday morning Rev. Winston from Sunny Side, Utah, preached a very interesting sermon.
...At 3 o'clock P. M. Rev. H. C. Gatewood, our pastor, preached our baptism sermon which was enjoyed by all who heard him. After the sermon one was baptized in Blue River. Our service was well attended. Sunday night at 8 o'clock our pastor preached a wonderful sermon. There were several visitors present. Our prayer meeting is improving. There was one addition to the church Wednesday night. We have prayer meeting every Wednesday night. Come and worship with us. Our B. Y. P. U. is still improving.

ST. STEPHENS BAPTIST CHURCH.
Services were well attended all day. Brother Jessie Harris, acting pastor did his very best to occupy until the good shepherd come. He was assisted by Brother Hamilton. In the afternoon he was assisted by Rev. Brooks. We had a glorious meeting and the services were conducted by the Deacons. Much interest was manifested. Sister Jane Sims is able to be out again. Sister Fannie Hill is confined to her bed. Rev. J. W. Hulse and wife are still attending the N. B. Congress. Brother Sims' Rally Club served Sunday.

BIRTHDAY SOCIAL.

A very happy birthday and musicale was given by the Vine Street Baptist Choir at the residence of Miss B. Gilham, 2614 Euclid Avenue, in honor of Mr. A. T. Moore, director and Mrs. A. T. Moore, pianist. After an excellent program rendered by the Vine Street Choir very valuable and appropriate presents were presented the guests of honor by Mr. Henry Cox, Miss B. Gilham, Mrs. A. E. Johnson and Mrs. F. D. Mitchell. The worthy guests were Mrs. Cowell, Mrs. Brown of Missouri; Mrs. Cooke of Indianapolis, Ind., and Mrs. A. Kimbrough of Denver, Colo.

MISS B. GILHAM, Secretary.

—That a pony ride came near causing a bunch of people serious trouble the other morning and they had a hard time explaining that it took all night to repair a puncture. "Shut up honey shut up."

KANSAS AVE. BAPTIST CHURCH.
Sunday School at 9:30 was well attended. Preaching at 11:30 by the pastor, Rev. A. A. Banks, which was enjoyed by all. We heard many good things. At 3 o'clock the Deacons Union met after Rev. L. Mitchell preached. B. Y. P. U. at 8:30 was well attended and we had an excellent program by the Union. Collection all day was $41.10. Rev. H. B. Brisco from Texas will run a ten day meeting. Everybody is welcome.
